

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRAYCE RYCKMAN
Frontier 5-2410

Most of this column this week should have been in last Thursday's Torrance Herald. I had it all written but became so involved in yard work that I did not get it typed and turned in.

I'm sure all of you got the mimeographed, stapled forms on the subject of Seaside Heights Sewer District: the whys and wherefores. And I know a good many of us attended the special hearing on May 14 with the council members, the city attorney, the contractor, and the city engineers. Although many good and logical questions were asked, few were answered. After a long controversial session, another meeting was set for June 4. That is next Wednesday in the Council Chambers of Torrance City Hall at 8 p.m. This one should decide something, so let's be there in force.

It seems the health of the hill is improving now. That is, the neesees and mumps have about completed their rounds, although there had two more cases last week. Mrs. June Chomnie and Charles Thorne. And MacAfee also had two recent cases. Luetta Snider, age 7, and Wayne Hughes, 6. Chicken pox had the two Lane children and Alan Wagstaff of Bindewald down for a time too. Let's hope that about ends the siege.

Mrs. Helen Balchin of Mac-

Deinger Attends Bankers Gathering

R. J. Deinger represented the Torrance National Bank at the Independent Bankers Breakfast last week at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco. More than 150 community bankers from all over California were in attendance.

affee. Rd. returned from the hospital week before last after an operation for goiter. Her mother from Oakland has been staying at the Balchin home, lending a helping hand during her recovery.

Once again all of us can take great pride in our neighborhood and our neighbors. Several times before one of the Seaside Heights residents has been honored for some achievement or ability. This time it is our scoutmaster, Troop 728, Floyd Holstein of Zakon. On Wednesday night, May 14, he was awarded what is called a Scout Key, a very beautiful medallion on a ribbon pin. It was given to him by the Elks for "Outstanding Achievement" as leader of a Scout Troop. (Sincere congratulations, Floyd, from all of us). If you will visit any regular Boy Scout Troop meeting at El Retiro Park, you will see why he received it, and you can also see the Scout Key itself pinned above his left pocket.

By the way, Seaside School is having summer sessions again this summer, and Mr. Eckert hopes there will be a large attendance. Notices have been sent home explaining time and registration. All recreation areas of Torrance are also having planned recreation programs, indoor and outdoor games, contests, crafts, etc. There is a summer program booklet being given out with places and dates, available at the school office.

Mrs. George Sibley and children are back from their vacation to Arkansas, but as luck would have it, a day after their return, Mr. Sibley, Merchant Marine, was sent to Honolulu. That is a shame.

The Joe Waddingham family of Bindewald Rd. moved back and baggage week before last from 4303 to 4229. They were renting and became so fond of our view and climate they are now buying. They are good neighbors to keep, too. Joe cared for the yard and plants where they had rented, so naturally he will at his own place. And that is all we need— for everyone to take pride in the appearance of these homes. Incidentally, they had barely gotten things straightened up when company, old friends from Eugene, Ore., drove up and stayed several days. They were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Kirby (Lee). They too were quite impressed with our view and climate—it was the traffic that they objected to.

Laurels again go to Mrs. Peter Jurisich of 6225 Bindewald. That girl can really play bridge. She competed in the Western Division Bridge Tourney at the Biltmore Hotel last Saturday and she and her partner ended with the highest score in duplicate of the tables competing.

Now on to some newer topics—Brownie Troop 1068 had their Court of Honor meeting at El Retiro Park last Friday, May 23. The Brownies had a flag ceremony, sang songs, and showed some of the things they had made during the year, including their world belts, pin and caring sets for mother, and bookmarks for father. Girls who had been Brownies for a full year received a pendant. These included: Judy Ryckman, Heidi Schmitz, Carolyn Wadding-

ham, Carolyn Roettger, Gailham, Joann Brizius, Gloria Zer-Rowan, Vivian Head, Judy Thiel, vantian, Betsy Mewoorn, Susan man, Janice Anderson, Susan Slover, Patricia Farnham, Peg troop received their world pin, with the troop before already These were Carolyn Wadding-

For this she receives three mas- where that big 27-foot cruises ter points and a trophy.

While on the Jurisich family I must add that little Greg has been one very sick boy for the past week. Apparently a bad cold or the flu.

Warren Walker of Vanderhill, has been taking shape these many months, is real proud this week. He launched the boat last Saturday in San Pedro, and she is a seaworthy craft, now tied up at the Pacific Yacht Club in Long Beach. She has been officially christened the Donna Ray and this name was painted on

The Joe Johnson family—Joe, Esther and Bobbie, got away from it all for the week-end. They drove to Twenty-nine Palms and just simply rested and loaf- ed beside the swimming pool where they stayed. Have you seen the nice brick wall that Joe and his uncle are construct- ing at their home on Binde-
